Article X

Conditions for provision of grants from the Endowment Fund's assets

1. In order to fulfil its purpose as expressed in Article IV hereof, the Endowment Fund provides endowment grants from its funds.
2. Endowment grants are provided on the basis of the resolutions adopted by the Administrative Board following an evaluation of the applications submitted.
3. There is no legal entitlement to an endowment grant.
4. Applications for an endowment grant from the Endowment Fund may be filed by foreign producers through an authorised entity with a registered office in the Czech Republic, or by a Czech producer with demonstrated co-production participation in the international co-production seeking assistance. The Endowment Fund's endowment grants are intended for projects of films and series to be distributed abroad in cinemas, through television broadcasting, taken over television broadcasting or a video on demand service. The Endowment Fund may only provide endowment grants to audio-visual projects, the shooting of which began no earlier than in the previous year, began or begins in the year in which the application was filed or begins in the year following the filing of an application, and in which the city of Prague does not represent a location other than the city of Prague. The content of the audio-visual work (hereinafter "Work"), the implementation of which is the subject of the project, must not be pornographic in nature, approve violence or openly offend human dignity, and its content must not be in breach of the law in force in the Czech Republic. Also disregarded will be applications made by applicants to whom an endowment grant was previously allocated but the applicant committed a serious breach of the contract on provision of endowment grant and the legal entitlement to the endowment grant terminated, or the endowment grant was reduced with regard to less serious breaches of the contract by more than 20%.

5. When assessing an application for an endowment grant, the Administrative Board takes into account, in particular, the following criteria:
 - 5.1. The importance of the city Prague in the project;
 - 5.2. The depiction of the city of Prague in the project - based on the script;
 - 5.3. The number of scheduled shooting days at different locations in Prague;
 - 5.4. The value of the Prague motifs - specific locations (tourist, marketing, cultural, historical, architectural);
 - 5.5. The marketing potential of the project (in terms of tourism);
 - 5.6. The usability of the presentation of the City of Prague in media-related activities related to the project;
 - 5.7. The positive contribution to the presentation of Prague bearing in mind the theme and the role of Prague in the project.
6. Within three months of the filling of the application for an endowment grant and of the submission of the necessary documents, the Endowment Fund will either provide the endowment grant or will inform the applicant of the reasons for which the endowment grant cannot be provided. The Administrative Board of the Endowment Fund may, for serious reasons, extend the deadline for the award of its resolution as per the first sentence by another three months.
7. The endowment grant is paid to the selected applicant in the whole amount after verifying that the criteria under which the applicant was selected based on the rules and conditions further detailed in the contract on provision of an endowment grant entered into between the successful applicant and the Endowment Fund, and on the basis of a review screening

- of the Work by the members of the Administrative Board, including the final credits containing acknowledgement of the Endowment Fund's Founder in pre-approved content and visual form, which the successful applicant is obliged to incorporate in the form of the Work intended for distribution.
8. The Administrative Board, in a contract on provision of endowment grant, will stipulate serious and less serious breaches of the contract. In the case of serious breaches of the contract, the recipient of the endowment grant will lose the legal entitlement to the endowment grant. In the case of less serious breaches, the Administrative Board will stipulate percentage reductions in the endowment grant in the contract on provision of an endowment grant for each one breach of contract.
 9. The person to whom the Endowment Fund provided the endowment grant is obliged, upon the Endowment Fund's request, to demonstrate the manner and purpose of use of the endowment grant.
 10. No endowment grant may be granted to the Founder or the members of the bodies of the Endowment Fund and/or their relatives and/or legal entities in which a member of an Endowment Fund body or a close person has a position where he/she participates in the decisions of such legal entity.
 11. The documents regarding the endowment grants provided by the Endowment Fund are kept for a period of 10 years from the date on which the endowment grant was provided.

Article XI

Amendment of Foundation Charter

The Foundation Charter may be amended by the Founder to any extent by means of a written amendment. The amendment must take the form of a public document.

Article XII

Statutes of the Endowment Fund

The Administrative Board is authorised to regulate the internal relations of the Endowment Fund in the Statutes of the Endowment Fund.
